(a) Whether the Government had decided to corporatise the Delhi Milk Scheme (DMS) and any other Milk Schemes of other States:

(b) if so, the details thereof and the reasons therefore;and

(c) the steps being taken in this regard ?

Answer

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF AGRICULTURE(SHRI TASLIMUDDIN)

(a)to(c) The Government has decided `in principle` to corporatise the Delhi Milk Scheme to provide more autonomy if its operations and management,flexibility in financial matters to make it more efficient and viable.Expression of Interest was invited from reputed professional agencies to prepare feasibility report,Memorandum of Understanding, Articles of Association and other related jobs.Request For proposal was sent to three short listed agencies and bids have been received from them.
